The Honorable William Webster
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

Enclosed is a packet of information concerning a security gate system about which I have recently been informed. The system is manufactured by some constituents of mine, and it does appear to be a superior product. I would appreciate your reviewing the enclosed materials and giving every appropriate consideration to whether there might be some need for such a system to be used by the Central Intelligence Agency.

With best personal regards,

Most sincerely,

Alan K. Simpson

Dear Senator Simpson:

The Director has asked me to respond to your letter of 29 February 1988 concerning your constituents' security gate design.

I have forwarded the information to the appropriate components within the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). They will evaluate the design for our needs and will contact your constituent directly if there is any interest in this gate.

Thank you for forwarding this information to the CIA.

Sincerely,

John L. Helgeson
Director of Congressional Affairs
